

HIRING

Market analyst – INTERNSHIP

Presentation of the Startup

Tawtaw is 100% free mobile app product available in iOS and Android for homemade food delivery. With Tawtaw you can now access to a various range of dishes prepared with fresh and seasonal ingredients you can order in 3 clics and we deliver you in 35 minutes. It's you secondary kitchen straight in your pocket. We are the new generation of catering.

Job Description

Marketing analyst is responsible for studying market conditions to assess the potential sales of products and services. His goal is to help company determine what products are in demand, who will purchase the products and the price they are willing to pay. His duties include forecasting and monitoring sales trends, gathering consumer and competitor data, preparing reports for management and utilizing statistical software for data analysis.

Skills & Qualifications

Bachelor's degree in marketing or a related field

Excellent oral and written communication skills

Ability to multitask well

Strong background in Microsoft Word, Excel, Access and PowerPoint

Send your resume to contact@tawtaw.co